Path #1
This path leads straight to God’s overall will for your life. It’s a short-cut. This path has some rewards, but they are not nearly as great as the rewards that come from taking the more difficult path. The more difficult path represents God’s best for your life. If you follow this path, you will earn all the Fruits of the Spirit and wisdom. This will help you to handle the blessings God wants to give you. David could have taken this path if he had chosen to kill King Saul on the two opportunities he had.
This path only earns Kindness from the Fruit of the Spirit. That’s still better than taking the short-cut!
Path #3
This path earns all of the Fruit of the Spirit. It’s the most difficult, but the blessings are much better! This is the path David took to becoming king of Israel.
